Amy And Judy posted:

The cares of the world concern you no longer. You have completed this life; your work is done. Your family is healthy and happy in their pursuits. You have loved much and well. You will remain in the hearts of those you left behind. We thank G-d for carrying us through very hard times and never leaving us. We thank our father, Seymour, for his spiritual presence, holding our hands and guiding our steps as we navigated this most difficult path. Our sincere gratitude, Dad, for giving us the patience, empathy, tolerance and strength we needed this past year. We thank you, Mom, for giving us life and caring for us. We are grateful to you for bringing together two sisters who, with the miles between them, had somewhat drifted apart. Our family hasn't always been close, but we have strengthened and reinforced our bonds, reliving the memories we have shared while creating new ones working in tandem during the difficult times, as family should. Rest in peace.
