There were so many good memories that we had during our 46 year friendship. But one that is outstanding is Lenny's old station wagon that was available to whoever needed it and for whatever you needed it for. One time, he and Jackie took me to the Bowery to find a light fixture for my dining room, Lenny patiently went to each and every store with me, carried the huge fixture to the car, loaded it, drove back to Centereach and then hooked it up....he loved to shop, he loved to drive and he loved to help. We loved him. Another time, I will tell you about the hooker tours he used to take us on in Manhattan after dinner at WoHop....
