It is a terrible shock to learn of Benji's death. We knew each other for over 50 years. I can hear his voice now, see his knowing smile, and that magic look in his eyes. He was filled with wisdom, laughter, Love, kindness, and the natural ability to teach with a purpose beyond facts. For the remainder of my life I shall think of you, and remember how much he meant to me. I shall also regret that too much time passed between now and our last visit. All my best thoughts to Bette, Julie, and brother Frank. Gary Thomas Keating, Lawrencean.
