My dear Marlene, I just found out about your passing today. Ironically, I just texted you last week and was hoping this was not true. I will miss our friendship and our work conversations. Who will I talk about food and health with now? And clothes and makeup? Ha ha! Well, now I know how old you are!....you were always so private about that and you know what, I see why! You were always impeccable! I hope you are at peace. My prayers go out to your family. Especially your grand kids. Love, Diana

Marlene was a beautiful, classy, smart, and sincere woman. A real lady. An impeccable dresser. I am so sorry for your loss. I had the pleasure of working with Marlene, at Lord and Taylor. She had such a positive outlook on life. She always spoke of her 2 son's, her granddaughters, and her beautiful daughter Becca, and of course, her wonderful husband. I last texted with Marlene in July and she said she was doing well. She was one brave lady. I am so pleased to have known Marlene, even though it was only a couple of years. God bless all of you, Sincerely, Diane Pezzano
