Iain C Brooking Thomas posted:

Ralph Kravitz, an old friend from our days together at Citibank in London, and at PPABank in Krakow. A tough US Paratrooper, and an experienced Banker, who seized the chance to help the fledgling Polish Banking Community in the 1980s to emerge into the Capitalist world outside the Russian dominated sphere. Today, I was thinking about our days together in Warszawa before the Leasing Company was sold to the Japanese shareholders. He taught me much about the Financial Sector, and about American Business Culture. My thoughts are with Malka and Craig at this time. Airborne! Iain Brooking Thomas, Lieutenant Colonel (Retired)
